

2020 Distinguished Leadership Awards Call for Nominations

DBIA is accepting nominations for the Distinguished Leadership Awards. These awards are presented to individuals who have demonstrated leadership in the advancement of effective design-build practices and in the promotion of design-build as a project delivery method of choice.

Nominations will be judged based on the overall impact of the nominee's activities related to the advancement of design-build project delivery. Specific attention should be focused on the nominee's efforts and achievements in furthering the understanding and use of design-build as an effective and efficient delivery method. DBIA understands that the means and methods by which the nominee achieves this goal will vary depending on the position they occupy within the industry (e.g. student, owner, legislator, etc.).

Nominees need not hold DBIA membership. Nominations may be submitted by DBIA members, by other practitioners or the nominees themselves. Nominations are due no later than July 10, 2020. Email Awards@dbia.org with questions.

Nominees will be considered in the following categories:

- Owner (public or private sector)
- Industry Professional
- Legislator (National, State, or Local)
- Faculty (full-time)
- Young Professional (35 or younger)
- Student (undergraduate or graduate)

Nominee Information:

- Full contact information including mailing address and email.
- Describe how the nominee meets the criteria outlined above. Specific examples strengthen the nomination, as do specific references to involvement at the DBIA Region and/or Chapter levels. (300 words or less)
- Provide a testimonial (including contact information) from a person or organization that has worked closely with, or benefited from, the nominee's efforts related to advancing the understanding and/or use of design-build. Testimonial may come from submitter of this nomination. (300 words or less)
